

Pertinent changes to to LNKC Lakewide Sailing Instructions for 2017-2020

2. ELIGIBILITY / RATINGS

Added:

2.3 While racing, a boat must have someone on board who meets the requirements for registration.

2.4 Registration for Open events is available to anyone who is “a member of a club or other Organization affiliated to a World Sailing member national authority”, per RRS 75.1. If using the LSI or Permanent Marks, competitors not already meeting this requirement must obtain a free online membership in the Scuttlebutt Sailing Club, at www.sailingscuttlebutt.com, recognized by US Sailing for just such circumstances.

2.5 Registration will not be accepted and a boat will not race unless all eligibility requirements are met.

5. NOTICES TO COMPETITORS AND CHANGES TO SAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Changed:

4.3 RC may broadcast information posted on the bulletin board to competitors on VHF channel 71.

To:

5.3 RC may broadcast information to competitors on VHF channel 69.

7. THE COURSE

Changed:

6.1 ... If the Sailing Instructions for the event outline one start for all, RC may provide separate courses for Spinnaker vs. Non- spinnaker by signaling the Spinnaker Course under Flag “S” and the Non- Spinnaker Course under Flag “N” on distinct flagstaffs.

To:

7.2 If the Sailing Instructions for the event outline one start for all fleets, RC may provide separate courses for Spinnaker vs. Non- spinnaker by signaling the Spinnaker Course under numeral flag “1” and the Non- Spinnaker Course under numeral flag “2” on distinct flagstaffs.

Added:

7.9 The number of times to round a Mark in any course denoted as “Mark-P-number” will be signaled by a numerical flag (for instance “R-P-2” = R-P-R-finish, “W-P-3” = W-P-W-P-W-finish, etc.).

7.10 RC may replace a missing Channel Marker or Permanent Mark with a temporary mark “T” that may not display Flag “M” and without any sound signals. This changes RRS 34.
